I wasn't sure what to expect from this book. I enjoy reading and all, but come on, there is no character development and literally a non-existent plot. Half way into this book, somebody suggested it wasn't a novel. So I have updated my review, the rest of this review is based on that premise. I found this book very difficult to read. It would seem to me, that if somebody wants to know what all the English language words mean, it would make sense to start with the most common words at the beginning, yeah know, so people can start using them sooner. I mean, it's not like somebody is going to fly through this book in an hour or two . . . I gotta believe it will take most people at least two weeks to get through it all. How ridiculous, I literally had to read about 2/3rds of this book before I got to the word "THE". Now, I know from personal experience that THE is a pretty common word. In fact, it was used in many of the (
